DESCRIPTION:

Full sun to part shade tree and shrub garden
Square shape
Bloom colour design/ species dependent

The garden has a contemporary ornamental feel providing a lot of structural elements, using varying heights and forms. The garden includes popular native shrub and tree species, however allows those who want a few perennials to add these in spaces along the border and within the garden provided. This garden design allows homeowners to pick a selection of various preferred species using the corresponding number within the design. Shrubs can be a great water wise choice and create shade- both which lower energy costs providing energy savings to the homeowner. Some of these native species are already known for their attractive foliage, blooms, berries and fall colour in horticultural nurseries, and this garden design adds others that deserves much needed attention, such as New Jersey Tea, a great substitute for smaller hydrangea varieties.
